

Specialist Landlord Building & Contents Insurance

As a landlord, the smart move would be to insure your property investment.

But your household policy should be adequate, right?

WRONG!

Does your insurance policy cover

- Malicious damage by tenants?
- Loss of rent cover?
- Landlord Liability Cover to third parties? (Tenants and their guests)
- Vacant property cover?
- Contingency cover for invalidation of the Policy by the tenant?

Standard "household" insurance policies often exclude the key letting features covered here..... or worse..... letting may invalidate your insurance policy!

Don't put yourself and your investment at risk!

Available exclusively through the Leaders Group of Companies

Are you fully covered?

Many landlords unwittingly insure their tenanted properties under a standard Household Policy which may well exclude claims resulting from the tenant's activities or worse provide no cover at all in the event of a claim.

Don't run the risk
